service_node_3.Service3.
    __init__
